CLIENT RESULTS

HOW OUR CLIENTS ARE CRUSHING DEBT, ENDING MONEY STRESS, AND GROWING WEALTH SO THEY CAN BECOME WEALTHY WORLD CHANGERS FOR THE GLORY OF GOD!

Results, Results, Results...

At Kingdom Wealth Movement we only care about one thing - getting amazing, jaw-dropping results for our clients!

In this book, we've put together a collection of some of our client reviews and experiences. Here's what you need to know:

- Every review and story in this book is 100% verified and authentic. No client is ever paid, rewarded, or compensated in any way for their feedback.
- Plus, Facebook doesn't allow us to edit someone else's post and words whatsoever.

In short, you can have total and absolute confidence that everything you're about to read is 100% genuine. These are real people just like you.

Here's why this matters to you:

The stories in this book are chock-full of solid gold advice on how to crush your debt in record speed, end financial stress, rapidly save 10's of thousands of dollars, earn the money you're truly capable of, and become a millionaire for the kingdom of God. You can learn a ton just by reading them.

But that's just the tip of the iceberg.

I know you're focused on eliminating debt and building wealth, but the real magic of our company is helping you live your kingdom mission in a more free and powerful way.

Our Lord Jesus said, "It's more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). So, if you want more of His joy through giving, then you need freed up to give like never before.

In a time where there is so much suffering and fear, WEALTHY AND GENEROUS CHRISTIANS are needed now more than ever.

There are people depending on you to step up to your full financial potential.

Your family, church, orphans, widows, the oppressed, Bible-less, trafficked, malnourished, sick, dying... They need you and they need you NOW. Not some other Christian out there. They need YOU!

But if you're walking blind without a specific, proven plan to eliminate your debt, save, and give generously, they'll never be able to receive God's blessing through you. Your talent will remain buried in the ground, and we both know what a tragedy that would be.

So, enjoy this book. Read the stories inside carefully. And if you have questions about any of it, make a note of them and we can discuss them on your breakthrough call.

We look forward to helping you transform your finances!

Talk soon,

CELEBRATION!!!!: I'm excited to graduate to the Power Tribe! Since I joined the program starting off in the Eagle's Nest, I have been able to pay off close to $12K in 8 weeks! I've also been able to start an e-commerce business that has a lot of people interested in purchasing my products. I've also garnered interested from a few third parties who would love to sell my products at their locations or on their platforms. I've even started to develop ideas for how to expand my business idea and it has definitely given me the confidence to embark on other business opportunities I've been waiting to start. It has truly been an exciting journey and I'm happy that this program has pushed me in this way.

TIME TO FLY

I can't believe that 8 weeks went that fast. It has been such a life changing, uplifting, eye opening, can't help but exhale with much Peace in my heart.

Paul and I step into our new phase of Life with MUCH renewed vigor and zeal. We know that tomorrow is not promised but we will still walk forward with hands held, giggling and enjoying every step.

Yes, there is most definitely going to be dark days that will try to take our heart but with GOD, well..... that is the best armor. (and of course our Joy of Mind practices)

I'm excited to start our new endeavors and our dreams. I love that we have teenage hearts and that we can look at each other to lob thoughts, ideas and dreams at each other and flourish in them. How did we do it before?

Jeremy,

Thank you for that gift of rediscovering each other again. We might still be working on the budget but this....This is SOOO much more. This is helping us to be US as individuals. So many hugs to you and your sweet wife, Kirstin Krulikowski. You will always be in our prayers for your dreams and faith life.

As for the rest of the eaglets in the nest...Thank you so much for the support and hugs and just being able to vent. This was something so nice to have when just wanting to come and share my thoughts without any judging. I pray for much clarity in your lives and Love to surround you and knowing that you are NEVER alone.

So I'm going to leave you with my mission statement.

I am more than just a wife, mother and grandmother.

I want to help people who struggle with limitations in their body, mind and soul.

This is what I will be working on, molding and bringing into reality as a breathing business in Christ.

MISSION STATEMENT

MISSION:

Assist and work to enhance the dignity and quality of women by strengthening them with their communities, eliminating barriers to opportunity, and help them reach their full potential through learning and the power of work.

VISION:

Every person has the opportunity to achieve her fullest potential and participate in and contribute to all aspects of life.

Pray for me as I will for thee 🙏🙏

Peace out Eaglets.

Went from paying only a few hundred/month toward debt to paying off over $10k in less than 3 months and becoming debt-free.

@Candace
February 24, 2019

Ok! Time to celebrate! We have a few days left in the month of February and @Erik and I are in week four of our coaching with Jeremy. There have been some things that have definitely stretched us, especially in the last two weeks, but to think of the huge shift that has taken place in this short time has made it all worth it so far. As we began looking at our budget for the month, Jeremy pushed us to find more money to put towards debt. In the beginning, we were looking at a July 2020 debt payoff date. After making some big adjustments we were able to go from paying off roughly $600 to a total of $3682.40 in debt THIS MONTH!!! Totally bananas!!! This means that we are on track to pay of ALL off our debt by April 1 of THIS YEAR! Yes, we may not have as much debt as others, but trust me we did! We've come a long way. And in addition to this, I'm so grateful for the knowledge we have gained that will help us build our emergency fund to our desired amount by the end of the year! I'm not sure where all of you are along this journey, but don't give up! Do what is being asked of you and when you find yourself struggling reach up. When you have a coach who has been where you are and is totally sold out on making sure others get free too, the best thing you can do is everything they say even when it's uncomfortable. You will be glad you did! I'm so ready to kick it up another level in March! 🙌🏻🙌🏻

@Erik
February 15, 2019

What a difference a couple of hours makes! In our weekly meeting, Jeremy "stretched" us to find enough money in our monthly budget to PAY OFF our daughter's braces!! We will still be pretty comfortable for the rest of the month as well by being resourceful and intentional. We are AMAZED! Thanks again Jeremy!

Hello Everyone, I finished my 8 weeks in the Nest and my have things changed for me spiritually, mentally and yes even physically. Thanks to the Coaching Calls, the One on Ones, yes even the pain of realizing the truth I tried to ignore(LOL) and just the genuine love shown (I will just hit a few highlights): My relationship with God has grown after starting this program that I call a journey and understanding how to be grateful to God for everything (past, present and future). It's really impossible to have a heart of Gratitude without God in my life. Since I've begun this journey of change in my life I am so grateful to say I have let go of some past hurts, (thank you Kirstin). I paid off over $26,000 of debt, I am transitioning from a life long career in Healthcare which is a comfort zone to the corporate world. This is something I always wanted to do, even went back to school for 7 years ago and was too fearful to leave the familiarity of healthcare. (NO MORE FEAR) I even realized that I was about to invest time in a business I don't even have a passion about, just because I invested in it(Thank you Jeremy). I love that I am a part of a life change movement called Debt Free Millionaire thats real and they truly care about people succeeding in every area of their lives. I'm so grateful and excited that I am realizing who I am in Christ, the power I have to change any situation for the best based on renewing my mind to His (Christ). Asking the question, "What does God say about You?" is life changing! Thank you Jeremy and Kirstin Krulikowski and the whole team for your obedience to continue to do what God has called you to do! I want to also give a shout out to Justin, who always send encouragement my way, you helped me to start this journey. I am truly at the best I have ever been in my life in years. I know the journey will continue to be exciting as I enter the POWER TRIBE!!! Whoop! Whoop! Thanks for the invitation, I feel Honored and Blessed to join with great anticipation and expectancy for the year ahead!!! Much Love to Everyone on this journey to Debt Free Millionaires!!!

My celebration/graduation post!

1. My biggest breakthrough is getting my financial life in a trackable and orderly state with Undebt.it and Every Dollar. Seeing exactly where my money is going and knowing my debt free debt was an enormous relief to me. Because of this clarity, I was able to better organize my finances and pay off just over 18k in debt in the 8 weeks of this program. I have hope again and know that as I keep working the system and my income rises, I have a pathway forward to control my finances and not just repeat the financial rollercoaster. I joined Power Tribe to help hold me accountable and to force me to up level my income because ultimately, I can't achieve the goals I want or become permanently debt free without increasing income.

2. My 2nd biggest breakthrough is gaining all the practical emotional and mindset exercises that help in all areas of my life. Being able to work on the whole of me (finances, emotions, physical, mental, spiritual) is crucial for success. I love how Jeremy and Kirsten bring in the spiritual (in a useable practical way), mental/emotional, and strategy sides to their coaching! I especially love the super villain to super hero exercise where you can truly get out how you are feeling and all the negativity inside of you that is holding you back. I am truly struck by how gratitude is next door to abundance and how daily gratitude is a must. This may be my single biggest stumbling block that has been holding back my success. Practicing daily gratitude is total different than just positive thinking.

3. The REAL of this program. I have been in multiple programs (some more $$ than this one) and I have to say this has been the most valuable by far because it teaches both the strategy and mindset necessary for overcoming issues in any area of life. Because it's nearly impossible to have a booming success in one area of your life while another area is on the rocks. Real about what is causing the problem. Solving the problem instead of just thinking more positively and trying to paint over the issue. Real about the limitations we all experience – for example if you are trying to recover from a major health issue you can write checks in your business that your body can't cash. Real that changing your life is process and takes time. Real that life isn't all rainbows and unicorns but we can thrive and come back from any hardship anyway. Real about understanding the true nature of the unfailing promises of God when we do our part.

OUR CELEBRATIONS ARE:

5. We are rebuilding our saving account.

Also, as we have been attending this program, one thing my husband had to do was plan date days for us to go on each week. Y'all know a girl loves food!!! Baby Step #3: COMPLETE

$26K to cover six months of expenses!

Devin 🙌 We're in Jeremy's program right now. My wife and I have never been on the same page financially, and the rest of our marriage was having real trouble, too.

I can say that so far, Jeremy's program has been one of the best things that could have happened for us. He focuses not only on doing the right kind of things but helping each of us become certain kind of people, with the character and humility it takes to do finances and marriage well.

As we go through the program, it seems like we have a major breakthrough or discovery in our marriage every few days.

The secret sauce, I think, is that Jeremy himself is obsessed with being and becoming that kind of person. We have had the privilege to learn from his studies, experiences, successes, and failures as he helps us walk down a trail he personally had to blaze.

When we found Jeremy, I was 110% done with having a mediocre marriage. I had decided I would no longer tolerate our problems. I reached out to multiple channels for help, but so far Jeremy's has been the single most helpful thing we've done. Not a day goes by that we aren't grateful for the work God's doing through him for our family.

Not sticking to a budget and constant guilt.

Dipping into dwindling savings to the tune of $500/month.

Never going on vacations to invest in each other (in over 12 years).

Let's just say it was rough and exhausting on every level.

But then they took a step that in just 9 months allowed them to...

Eliminate money fights,

Pay off 15k in debt,

Build up a 14k emergency fund,

Cash flow a major medical emergency, AND

Take the 5-day anniversary vacation they'd always dreamed about (without the kids!).

If you want to know exactly what they did, step-by-step, and how YOU can follow in their footsteps...

Don't miss my interview with this inspiring and committed couple on Wednesday, July 17th, at 3pm CST.

Just popping in to share that we reached our goal! Thank you so much for your guidance and wisdom, Jeremy Krulikowski! We went from being in the hole $500 a month to paying off about $15,000 in debt AND saving for our emergency fund AND our first ever vacation (we have been together for 12 years 🥰) in less than a year. In this time our youngest child needed major medical intervention and my husband was away for work *a lot*. If we can do it on an 'average' income and under very stressful circumstances, so can you. There is hope!

Jeremy was a great coach! We liked how he was able to see both of our perspectives and was able to be a neutral, but honest, party. We went from overspending monthly by at least $400 (quickly dwindling away our small savings account), to paying off all our debt in a short two months. We weren't in a crazy amount of debt, about $10,000, but the way we were spending that would have easily been double that by next year. Jeremy taught us how to properly budget and helped us work through the marital issues we were having because of our finances. We are now on a tight budget, know where our money is going, SAVING about $700 a month toward our savings goal, and planning for investments once our savings goal is reached. With Jeremy's help, we will hit that goal in the next few months. We are a two-paycheck a month household and are not a 6-figure household (yet! 😊). Just average people with a purpose and good coaching! I am confident that Jeremy will be able to change your entire financial situation if you are willing to put in the hard work.

Nearly Doubled His Income Within A Few Months!

Went from only earning at most $10K a month to making an average of $18,146 per month! An increase of $8,146 per month!

December 18, 2021 ·

Huge celebration: signed 12 month Executive Coaching Contract at $1,250.00/hour meeting weekly, $2,000.00 for assessment, with a $5,000.00 deposit at signing and $27,000.00 non-refundable retainer due 1/3/22 with the remaining 9 monthly payment of $3,333.33 paid in advance of the month's training!

It went so smoothly (like Jeremy said), the client (CEO) was like, "whatever you think David. I'll grab my checkbook." Btw, this is base and doesn't included any additional time over 60 minutes, future assessment and learning experience, or including of other team members in our training times ($900.00/hour per person) and other expenses. Also, in April I felt sheepish in asking $100.00/hour to sit down and talk with some of their team after the Derrick Chauvin verdict.

Thank you to Kirsten for all the work in the breakout room, helping me to work through so much "mind and heart trash" to the authentic me that desires to help people. To Jeremy, on coaching on strategy, belief, wording, "Hell/Heaven" discussion with client, and thinking directly about the whole process, Tammy for your continued support and encouragement, and our Thursday night group! Where I ended on what I 'actually' asked for and the terms, was dramatically different than where I 'started' at in my head and heart. And my client was just grateful to pay it and work together! Totally got trust this was an investment and they needed to show up!

Fast forward and towards the end of the year we started our own business! I began consulting, and was literally paid 10 times more than 8 months earlier. The difference was only possible after Jeremy and Kirsten helped me work through my inner beliefs and dialogue. I moved from frustrations to stepping forward in faith and confidence towards the things that I was passionate about and felt called to do.

(7) Understand, as with any human endeavor, coaching can involve feelings of discomfort and frustration which may accompany the process of change. Coaching does not offer any guarantee of success.

(8) I understand that my Consultant will honor my confidentiality unless required by law to disclose information about me.

2) TERMS OF PAYMENT.

- Fee: The fee is $1,250.00 per hour. The Client agrees to meet for 60 minutes session (with 10-15-minute grace period) at a frequency of four (4) sessions per month.
- Payment Procedure: The Agreement between The Consultant, David [redacted], and The CBO, above-named, is a 12-month agreement began on October 22, 2021. There is a $5,000.00 deposit due 12/14/21, with a pro-rated retainer fee of $27,000.00 (45%), on 1/3/22, and is non-refundable. Client will pay balance in advance over remaining 9 months in the amount of $3,333.33 the 28th of each month, beginning 1/28/22.

Signed contract and got $5k ($2k assessment & part of next year's deposit) deposit. And half $27k of coaching due 1/3/22!

Big thank you too Kirsten, you and Tammy!

If you feel in your gut that this is what you need to do, but fear is what's keeping you back. Defy the fear and JUMP... ALL IN!!! Just do it!

I'm on week 6 out of the 8week program and I woke up so excited this morning. Actually, I was so excited I didn't want to go to bed last night (my husband said the same), but my heavy eyes won out. My 12 yr old heard me tell my husband that I was so excited. He then asked what I was so excited about and I looked at him with a huge smile and said, "Life!" I have not felt that way or probably ever uttered those words since I fell in love almost 22 yrs ago. Seriously!

Jeremy is gifted and real about his own struggles and truly is THE BEST! (I was NOT paid to say this! Promise! 😊)

You and your marriage and your finances will be changed! Like Jeremy reminded us last night, if you are committed you cannot fail! Rick and I love you and are so thankful for you Jeremy (Kirsten too ❤️)!

Welcome! Great stuff going on here! I feel compelled to share with you, in case you have doubts, that stepping out of our comfort zone and booking our breakthrough call was the best "call" my husband and I have ever made! We were ready to do whatever it took to have freedom...we just didn't know how. I found Jeremy and this FB page and felt a little glimmer of hope that I had to share with my husband. We were feeling defeated and stuck, and didn't know how we could make things different. It's been 9 months since that call and joining Dream Team Marriage. We are not just surviving, but thriving. Our financial situation is better than ever and we are truly excited and confident that we are achieving our dreams. I wish we had gone through this 20 years ago. We are so thankful that God lead us to Jeremy and the program!

Jeremy is the real deal! He truly cares about each couple that he coaches and we feel it. His passion and excitement is contagious! I love that he shares some of his own struggles and how he works through them making himself relatable and helping us to see that our goals are attainable. Our lives are so much richer having Jeremy as a coach. He is the best of the best! You will get results, too many to list, from Jeremy's coaching! He is 5 stars plus!

Parting words:

This has been the most positive life-changing 8wks of our lives and the best investment we've ever made! We don't regret for one second the price we paid to be part of it's all it promised to be and more! I do not have enough words to convey what a true gift this has been. There isn't one area of our lives that isn't changed! Bondage to some things that had negative affects on our marriage and self-worth for almost 22 yrs...now FREEDOM...even more than any recovery group alone could provide.

Wanting to launch a business for years but feeling unworthy and unable... believing there were too many roadblocks, and self-employment would never happen. Now after 8wks of the program, having the mindset that we already have the skills we need to succeed and the belief to back that up...resignation was given at job, and we are on our way to full-time self-employment with the belief that we will double our income quickly and on our way to being debt-free and being a greater blessing to others.

Our finances don't control us or dictate our emotions and attitudes toward each other...we are united in our goals and we are BOTH following a budget after near 22years of one person carrying the weight of it. Where we once felt stress and overwhelm, that is no longer. We feel more connected than ever, excitement for the future, and more positive in our mindsets than ever before.

We are sad that we have come to the end of it and will miss this group immensely, but we now have the tools to accomplish our dreams and we will be the best "Dream Team" we can be!

We hope to reconnect some way or another. We are rooting for everyone of you! You CAN do it...go ALL IN! Do not slack on mindset/gratitude exercises...this is key, and as Jeremy says,"Do what makes you poop your pants!" 😊

Thank you so much, Jeremy Krulikowski, for putting the hard work into yourself, and then being a blessing to others with what you have learned and for being real with us, we are truly grateful for you and this experience! Until we meet again!

Funny that you posted this...as I was just working on our January budget and yesterday reflecting on the changes we have made over the last several months! Starting with a little family getaway trip for Thanksgiving and then Christmas present shopping...everything was paid for with cash!!! 👉

No extra debt incurred and a much less stressful holiday season! ❤️

In just this past year we have paid off a little over $14,600 in debt!

I can't believe it's only been a month since we graduated from the program! We are beyond excited, grateful, changed. We are never going back to the negative, despairing, and hopeless marriage. Our spending is under control, we are seeing our goals realized, and have begun working toward a dream goal that we never even would have considered in the realm of possibility 3 months ago when we started! Obstacles are going to come -- we are ready to plow through them, overcome them, do whatever it takes to make it work. SO FREAKING EXCITED! Thank you Jeremy Krulikowski!!!! So proud of my Scott !!!!

Rachel

Scott had his last day of work at his job last week and thanks to a completely new mindset, confidence, and skill set, we have launched a dream business and are halfway through our program which is helping us create the program we will use in coaching! Four months ago we would've never dreamed we would be having this much fun creating something together and having a strong enough marriage to be able to do so! The best is yet to come!

Celebration Sunday: Good morning Eagle's Nest! We are pretty large contributors to our church and other charitable organizations. As a result, we often receive a tax refund. In the past, we've either poured it back into the church or went on vacation with the refund!

This year, we did something different...we paid off debt! We were able to pay off 3 more credit cards! That's a total of 6 credit cards since we began the program!

Even though our sessions are complete, we are relentlessly targeting debt to eliminate it! So let this be an encouragement to you to stay the course, even when no one is looking!

Happy Sunday!

After last night's call with Jeremy, we were able to pay $4,000 in debt this month and pay off four debts!! The stretching hurt a bit, but this is exactly what we need in order to get to our goal of #MaldivesIn2023.

Also, lately I've been looking at million-dollar homes on Redfin in cities we've discussed moving to. I've never done this before but I'm thinking, "Who told me I couldn't own a million-dollar home"? I find myself imagining us living in these homes, hosting parties, raising our children, and enjoying life without debt. I can see it happening for the first time in my life.

Please continue to pray for us as we'll pray for you all.

Week 6 Scripture Reflection - Planning/Budgeting and Teamwork

Going into this program, we were not planning or budgeting and we weren't acting or performing as a team. With so many things in marriage, we had good intentions and talked about the need for budgeting and working together, but follow-through has been extremely difficult. I feel through what we have learned and by entering into this journey together, we have accountability to work together and are better understanding of God's will for us, our finances, and ultimately our marriage, to GLORIFY HIM above all other things and to lift up our spouse second only to God. A cord of three strands is not easily broken.... me, 🇁🇪 Lance, and God. Together, with intention and intimacy, we can conquer anything that God has planned for us.

I can't really fully express (yet anyway) my distinctions from this weekend. One thing for sure, I have a clearer understanding of what the word "breakthrough" means. For ten years I have prayed and wished for what I have now discovered I have with Stacy. Our hearts have truly changed from our time together on Sunday.

It's not just the hopeful feeling for future growth I have been brewing since we started on this heroes journey. It is a deeper understanding of who she really is to me and what I am supposed to be with her.

Yesterday morning, Stacy sent me this text:

I love you. I honor you. You are mine. My warrior, my protector, my lover, my friend.

A week ago those "nice" words would have made me smile and would have brightened my day a little. Yesterday, as I read them, I felt my heart broken and remade in that moment. They made me weep and I can't read them today without tearing up.

God is so good. I am so thankful for the love and service from each of you this past weekend. I cannot think of a clearer picture of Christian love and discipleship than what this group provides. I love you, family. ❤️
